AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Provide expert scientific and technical knowledge in the sub-disciplines of science assigned to the program.
- Manage program resources so as to provide optimal scientific judgment to insure integrity and consistency in the grant/declination process without conflict-of-interests.

- Advise and assist in the development of short- and long-range plans and in establishing goals and objectives for the program. Plan the budget for the program considering past, present, and future years experiences and projections, allocating and distributing resources within that budget and managing post-award evaluation and assessing the accomplishments of the program.
- Create and maintain linkages to other NSF units and other Federal agencies in pursuit of the overall NSF mission, and coordinate the Foundation's interests in the program's specialized areas with similar programs of other organizations and agencies.
- Participate in staff, panel, committee, and other meetings, providing input relevant to program area and/or division.
- Develop policies and plans for strengthening research and education programs. Provide information to the community on how NSF is pursuing its mission, and gather data and impressions from the community on the effectiveness of NSF's performance of its mission.
- Serve as a consultant, and participate in the presentation and dissemination of a variety of informational documents, which may include data on progress being made toward NSF's goals, trends and opportunities papers, and budget plans.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in the field of biology or related disciplinary fields. In addition, six or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or managerial experience beyond the Ph.D. pertinent to the position is required.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS: Final ranking is based upon job-related experience, training, education, awards, performance appraisals or letters of recommendation, and the following knowledge, skills, and abilities.

- Broad knowledge and understanding of scientific principles and theories to applicable to the biological sciences or a related field of science.
- Research, analytical and technical writing skills, which evidence the ability to perform extensive inquiry into a wide variety of significant issues and to make recommendations and decisions based on findings.
- Ability to organize, implement and manage a proposal-driven grant program allocating resources to meet a broad spectrum of program goals.
- Knowledge of management and organization concepts, principles, practices and techniques, with expertise in large project management and/or research administration.
- Ability to meet and deal with scientific community and peers to advocate program policies and plans.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills, and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement, which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Selective and Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.
